MAIN IDEA

To achieve and then maintain financial freedom, you have to build your own "Money Machine" – a portfolio of personal investments. That's really all it takes to master the game of money. If you have financial investments which then generate sufficient ongoing income to fund the lifestyle of your choice, you are financially free.

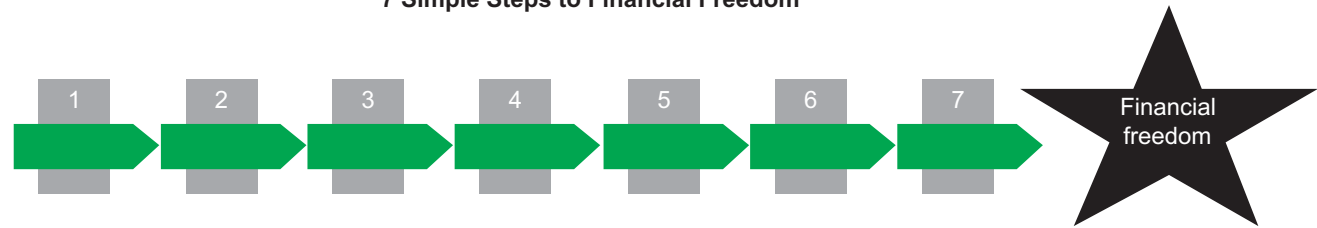

So how do you do it? There are seven steps involved, each of which in and of themselves are in fact relatively simple:

- 1 Make the decision to become an investor, not just a consumer
- 2 Know the rules of investing so you can become an insider
- 3 Make the game winnable – by figuring out what your real numbers are
- 4 Make your most important decision – how to allocate your investments
- 5 Create your own guaranteed lifetime income plan
- 6 Start investing today like the very best investors in the world
- 7 Get started and enjoy the future – it's going to be a great place

"If you follow the 7 Simple Steps – the steps which have been distilled from the world's most successful financial players – you and your family will win this game. And you can win big! But to win, you have to know the rules and learn the best strategies from those who have already mastered the game. This is your opportunity to stop being the chess piece and become the chess player in the game of money."

7 Simple Steps to Financial Freedom

Step 1 – Make the decision to become an investor, not just a consumer Page 2

Even a small amount of money magnified by the miracle power of compounding can work wonders. Decide what portion of your current income you will save and invest.

Step 2 – Know the rules of investing so you can become an insider Page 3

Once you know the rules of investing, you will no longer fall prey to those with other agendas. Know the myths of investing and watch out for them. Be an insider.

Step 3 – Make the game winnable – by figuring out what your real numbers are Page 4

Set some realistic financial goals which will make the game winnable for you. Cut through the fog of uncertainty and know what you really need to enjoy life.

Step 4 – Make your most important decision – how to allocate your investments Page 5

Where you put your money and in what proportions lies at the heart of success as an investor. Invest in the right places for safe returns, peace of mind and prosperity.

Step 5 – Create your own guaranteed lifetime income plan Page 6

Use savvy investment strategies which give you the upside benefits with none of the downside risks. It can be done – people are already achieving it.

Step 6 – Start investing today like the very best investors in the world Page 7

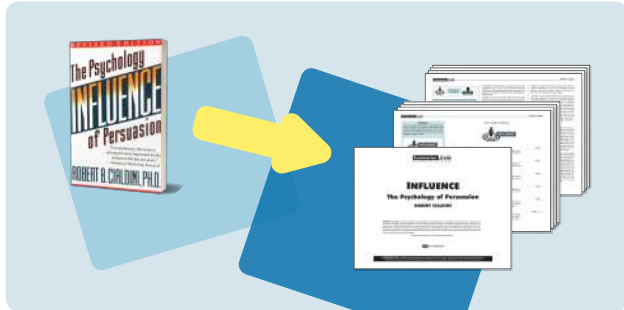

Look to emulate what the world's most successful investors have already achieved. Follow their blueprint to do the same for your investment portfolio as well.

Step 7 – Get started and enjoy the future – it's going to be a genuinely magnificent place Page 8

To live a fuller, richer and more enjoyable life, not only do you need to know what to do but you also have to do it. Stay on target and help others to do the same. The future is bright.
